Excerpt: . . . THE MORNING DRIVE. A PLAY FOR VERY LITTLE CHILDREN. Oh, dear mamma! Im glad youve come! Pray look, for we pretend, Im riding in a pony chaise To see an absent friend. Now, is it not a famous scheme, As like as chaise can be And such a noble horse as this We very seldom see. Fort is a true Arabian, As white as driven snow; T was bounding oer the desert sands Not many months ago! And we pretend we speed along, Like arrows in the wind; And Charley is my servant lad, Who gallops just behind. And so, mamma, we re driving out--Andt is a morn in May; And we can scent the hawthorn flowers, As we go by the way. And we can see the bird-cherry Upon the green hills wide, And cowslips pale and orchises, And many flowers beside. And...
