How Hill got the Aqueduct Commission re-organized in the contractor s interest, and then lied about it - The Frauds upon the City by the Hill Aqueduct Commission. Hill agrees to protect Squire from Punishment for his Crime in consideration of the Patronage of the Department of Public Works - His desertion of Squire. Hill frightened by Hewitt into betraying O Brien. The history of David B.Hill s connection with the Aqueduct frauds, involves the history of the whole Aqueduct from its inception in 1881. It is the purpose of this article to tell the story only from the accession of Mr. Hill to the Governorship in January, 1885. The Origin Of The Frauds. The situation at that time may be summed up in a few words. Hubert O. Thompson had conceived the grand idea of building the new Aqueduct, a public work, comparing in magnitude of cost with the Erie Canal and far surpassing the Tweed Court House, in order to furnish the means of financial and political gain to the gang of plunderers and politicians with whom he was associated. His enterprise was once nipped by the veto of Governor Oornell. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes...
