S. Customs and Border Protection on the Internets World Wide Web, provides the trade community with current, relevant information regarding CBP operations and items of special interest. The site posts information--which includes proposed regulations, news releases, publications and notices, etc. --that can be searched, read on-line, printed or downloaded to your personal computer. The web site was established as a trade-friendly mechanism to assist the importing and exporting community. The web site also links to the home pages of many other agencies whose importing or exporting regulations that U. S. Customs and Border Protection helps to enforce. The web site also contains a wealth of information of interest to a broader public than the trade community. For instance, on June 20, 2001, CBP launched the Know Before You Go publication and traveler awareness campaign designed to help educate international travelers. The web address of U. S. Customs and Border...
