The Mundo of the Mundane: From Journals, 1959-1984 (Paperback)

By Frederic B Wildfang

iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .These poems are part of a larger whole, gleaned from some 25 years of journal recordings. In the first three or four years of serious writing, I mostly wrote little hokku-like poems on little scrap pieces of paper I kept in my pockets and later recorded in my journals--desert breaths, sighs, groans with sexual-geographical overtones--jotted down while teaching school on a ranch in Arizona, hitch-hiking all over the Southwest, and trekking deep into the wilderness. Then, the first longer poems were actually juxtapositions of these little pieces--montages, compositions, jazz riffs and solos. It is important to note that none of these poems were composed in any rational, deliberate manner--never having attempted write a conventional poem with conventional rhyme, meter, etc. The things I write down are the spontaneous recordings of images, events, and ideas that make up the substance of daily experience, hence the title of this book. . .full of vivid imagery and imaginative language (Arlene Rivera, Flume Press) The worlds you create unravel with great beauty! (Nancy Goldfarb, 2002 Cleveland State University Poetry Center Prize.)
