Excerpt: .her senses; and the little children, who had before been skulking about the room, ran up to their mother, pulling her by the gown, and hiding their faces in her bosom. But the woman, at sight of them, seemed to recollect herself, and cried out, My little darlings, you must all have been starved without the assistance GRATITUDE. 119 of this sweet boy; why do you not join with me in blessing and thanking him? At this the husband said, Surely, Mary, you must have lost your senses. What can this young gentleman do for us to prevent our wretched babes from perishing? Oh! said the woman, William, I am not mad, though I may appear so; but look here, William, look what Providence has sent us by the hands of this little angel, and then wonder that I should be wild. Saying this, she held up the money, and at the sight her husband looked as wild and astonished as she. But Tommy went up to the man, and taking him by the hand, said, My good friend, you are very welcome to this; I freely give it you, and I hope it will enable you to pay what you owe, and to preserve these poor little children. But the man, who had before appeared to bear his misfortunes with silent dignity, now burst into tears, and sobbed like his wife and children. But Tommy, who now began to be pained with this...
