Sri Satguru Publications, Delhi, India, 1992. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First Edition. Translated into English from original Sanskrit, this classic work repudiates the Universal Relativism of 'Vijnapti-Matrata-Sidhhi' and the Pluralism of 'Hinayans' establishing its own system of a spiritual Monism. The Vijnanavada school of Buddhism represents the latest and final form of that religion, the form in which, after having transformed India's national philosophy and leaving its native Indian soil, it spread over almost the whole of the Asiatic continent upto Japan in the East and Asia Minor in the West where it amalgamated with gnosticism. The Madhyanta-Vibhanga-Sastra of Maitreya-Asanga with its commentaries, the bhasya of Vasubandhu and the tika of S thiramati, belong to the most fundamental works of this Vijnanavada (Yogacara) school of Northern Buddhism. This present Book contains English translation of the first part of the text i.e. the double essence of ultimate reality. Printed Pages: 172.
