Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Voice From the London and Its Echoes, to Which Is Prefixed an Address: To Those Who Have Suffered by the Calamity, and to the Public at Large My Fellow-Sufferers and Fellow-Countrymen, - In compliance with a widely expressed request I again venture to submit the following letters to your earnest and careful consideration. Written, as they have been, from a strict sense of duty, under a deep feeling of bereavement, and through a peculiar combination of circumstances, their object will be fully attained, if they only prompt that further investigation into the circumstances connected with the loss of The London which is so absolutely needed, both for private satisfaction and for public advantage. A variety of causes, to which I cannot shut my eyes, may, possibly, prevent my statements from producing that result which, under happier auspices, they might be expected to achieve. It is useless to conceal that I shall have to contend with the influence of a great and powerful firm, which, though it may not be openly and actively exerted, will yet operate as a dead weight against all action concerning the matter in hand. Next to this, there will, probably, be the indirect opposition of many of their fellow-shipowners to encounter; and, further still, there will, most likely, be a bias on the part of the government in general, and of the board of trade in particular, to support their own officers and to acquiesce in the conclusions of a report which, to employ plain language, has simply white-washed everybody responsible for the construction, equipment, lading, and management of the lost vessel. Nor will these be the only, nor, I...
