The selection of the stones at the quarry has hitherto cost me not more than 10 to 15 per cent, extra. 5. The Roof.--A very few words must suffice to dispose of this subject, having regard to our limitations as to time. It is not my intention to speak of flat roofs of fireproof construction, and covered with impermeable materials of various kinds; obviously they are rarely required, and when wanted, only need to be well executed to answer the purpose intended. But the ordinary house-roof is a thing that forms a hat to a building; it may or may not have projecting eaves, or a brim to the hat, but is always presumed to rise...
